100 Year Old Store

Built in the late 1800s, the building which houses the Village Store has served as a marketplace to New Gloucester for over 100 years; most notably as the New Gloucester Farmer's Union for the better part of the twentieth century. In 1980 the space became the Village Store and in 2008 opened under new ownership.

Now equipped with a large wood-fired brick oven, we offer homemade meals and quality market goods while also serving as a rural meetingplace.

What's New at the Village Store

Significant kitchen improvements this winter have allowed us to expand upon our market and menu.

Daily Meal Specials (in the cooler or served hot)- look for lasagna, shepherds pie, enchilada pie, mac & cheese, savory crepes, stuffed peppers, and more...

Bread and Bagels- honey wheat, made with white whole wheat flour, available everyday. Loaves of cherry walnut, challah, rye, and sourdough also available. Fresh bagels Thursday to Sunday (toasted all week).

Wine and Beer- lots of new wine labels and an expanded specialty beer selection. State law regulating wholesale alcohol pricing allows us to price beer and wine the same as large retailers.

To Our Valued Customers

We aim to offer a unique, healthy, hearty, preferably locally based product. We value our customers and if anything is ever not to your liking please let us know.
